1819 1820 18 sep trinity ct ARCH v alex bremner ARBITRATORS - reports. (sued arch graham -

Bremner faithfully looked after all the books a/cs and interests of graham- Highly confidential situation of agent and manager - to send him as skipper for a boat load of clay was an unnecessary and unusual order FISH OR BAIT NOT being the immediate object wrong to discharge him immediately given 9 years of service - should have taken legal steps through a JP to make bremner perform duties or to forfeit wages xBUT bremner ought NOT to have refused the duty "should do everything for the interest of the voyage" etc for this to forfeit 1/3rd of wages due to him between 29 jul and 30 nov 1820
