In the Surrogate Court, Newfoundland.

District } Trinity } T. M. W. } Be it remembered that on Thursday the first day of May, One Thousand eight hundred and seventeen, came into this Court William => Nelson, of Trinity, Merchant, and brought an Instrument of Writing purporting to be a ^{Bill of} Sale of a lease of a room, and prayed that the same might be inrolled of record: it is therefore inrolled accordingly.

Geoff. Patton
 Clerk of the said Court

Memorandum of an agreement made and entered into this twenty second day of April, One Thousand eight hundred and seventeen. Between Sarah Triggs of Trinity, Newfoundland, Wife of William Triggs of the one part, and William Nelson of Trinity aforesaid of the other part. Wherein the said Sarah Triggs is solely and lawfully entitled, under and by virtue of her late Father's Will, bearing date on or about the twelfth day of November, One Thousand eight hundred and fifteen, to all that Fishing room or Plantation, together with the Dwelling house, Store house, Garden, and all and singular the appurtenances thereto belonging, which said Premises are situate in Trinity aforesaid adjoining to a Fishing room occupied by John Bugden on the Southern part thereof and extending Northward in a straight line along the Landwash Thirty three feet, and on the Western part thereof Six hundred and twenty four feet,

(as appears by the Records of the said Premises) and were lately occupied by Joseph Burrage, Father of the said Sarah Triggs To hold the said Sarah Triggs for her natural life if the said Testator's interest therein should so long continue (The said Room and Premises being held by the said Testator under a lease formerly granted by Thomas Young to John M. Elligott lately deceased for the term of Thirty Years from the twelfth day of October, One Thousand eight hundred and ten, and are subject to the payment of the yearly rent of Three Pounds Sterling - which is to be paid to Mr. Archibald Graham of Trinity or his assigns from the 28th day of October next for the space of Fifteen Years, and afterwards during the remainder of the said term to the said Thomas Young).

And Whereas the said Sarah Triggs hath agreed to sell and dispose of the said Room and Premises above particularly described for the sum of Twenty Pounds Sterling, Now these Presents Witness that in consideration of the sum of Ten Pounds & two shillings paid by the said William Nelson to the said Sarah Triggs immediately on the signing hereof, and the further sum of nine Pounds & eighteen shillings to be paid to her on the thirtieth day of September next, she the said Sarah Triggs hath sold & assigned & transferred, and by these Presents doth sell assign & transfer to the S. W. Nelson, All her right title & interest in & to all & singular the S. Swill^g House, Storehouse, Garden & Premises above particularly described and in all and singular the Appurtenances thereto belonging.

To hold to the S. W. Nelson his Executors & assigns for & during the natural life of the S. Sarah Triggs, provided the term originally granted in the said lease shall not sooner expire, subject to the paym^t of the S. annual rent of Three Pounds Ster^g in the manner before mentioned, - and the first paym^t thereof to be made by the said W. Nelson on the twenty-eighth day of October next - And the said Sarah Triggs doth hereby agree to execute any further or other conveyance of the S. Premises hereby disposed of, if required so to do.

Witness

John Noon.
