WINDO AND EXTRA

Dated the 14th of February, 1812, the examination of William Lockyer, illiterate, about forty-five years old, borned in the tiding of Kingston, in the Parish of Great Campford. When he was about fifteen years old, he went to service and lived two years with Mr. Issac Gulliver of Hillam, Sands, in the Parish of Hampreston, the part that lies in the Canty of Hamshire. He then hired himself as a yearly servant to Arthur Walkinshaw of Woolslop in the Parish of West Parley with whom he remained two years. He remained in the same place severalmonths afterwards but could not get any wages. He then went to Newfoundland, and in about ten years afterwards, he was empressed into his majesty's service where he continued nearly three years. At the end of which period, he again used the seas to Newfoundland and was taken prisoner and carried into France and Spain. He came back to England about seven years ago and married Elizabeth, his wife, by whom he has one child, namely Mary, about two years old. The examination deposition was witnessed by George Tito Brice.
