The examination of James Scott, dated the 1st of June, 1813, labourer. Touching the legal places of settlement of Richard Scott of Petershom in the Parish of Wimborne, says that his brothers about forth-seven years of age and was borned in the Parish of Milton-Abbis. His brother lived with his parents until he was about seventeen years of age when he went to Newfoundland and there continued for about five and a half years and then returned to England again and continued to work by the week for several years. And then he hired himself, (this is Richard Scott), as a yearly servant to Mr. Cross of Charlton Marshall. While he was there, Mr. Cross was taken ill, lately he married his recent wife, Jane by whom they have two children, Mary and Sarah.
