

Robert Squarry Name File entries:

1) Original entry:

SQUARRY

1708 CO 194/4 robt st jns inhabs pro lloyd

Surname: Squarry

Given name(s): Robert

Date of source: 1708

Source: Colonial Office. Newfoundland. Original Correspondence. 1696-1922

Location of source: CNS 303 vols. 211 reels

Notes: Robert Squarry, a St. John's inhabitant, was pro Lloyd, commander of the St. John's garrison.

2) Original entry:

SQUARREY

n/d1740s devon recs robt of salisbury druggist gets part of squarrys plant.

Surname: Squarrey

Given name(s): Robert

Date of source: 1740s

Source: Devon Records

Location of source: unknown

Notes: Robert Squarrey of Salisbury, a druggist, gets a part of Squarry's plantation. (Please note that in the Devon Wills [MHA Location 14-2-1-26] in 1742 the will of Robert Squarrey of Teingmouth? was in probate, which does indicate that a Robert Squarrey did in fact die around this time.)

Original entry:

SQUARRY

1741? DECON RECS ROBT decd of w/teign mcht widow Miram.son? ROBT of

Salisbury at DRUGGIST. left plant in nfld to Wm Humphrey schoolmaster of teign on trust for others. (Handwritten note: Now owned by Broph[y].)

Surname: Squarry

Given name(s): Robert

Date of source: 1741?

Source: Devon Records

Location of source: unknown

Notes: Robert Squarry of West Teignmouth/Teingmouth, deceased, left his plantation in Newfoundland to William Humphrey, schoolmaster, to administer in trust for others (family members perhaps?). In addition, Squarry left his business at West Teignmouth/Teingmouth to his wife Miram and their son Robert. [This entry is very difficult to discern, and the Archive does not hold the source of the information. Therefore, I am uncertain as to the meaning of the abbreviated entry.]

4) Original entry:

SQUARRY

1778 co 194/34 robt st jns anti palliser

Surname: Squarry

Given Name(s): Robert

Date of source: 1778

Source: Colonial Office. Newfoundland. Original Correspondence. 1696-1922

Location of source: CNS 303 vols. 211 reels

Notes: Robert Squarry of St. John's was anti Palliser, governor of Newfoundland 1764-1768, and heavily responsible for the passing of the Act for the Encouragement of the Ship Fishery (more commonly known as Palliser's Act) in 1775. Palliser defended fishermen against powerful merchants.

5) Original entry:

suarrey

1778 8 aug co 194/33 robt st jns anti palliser

Surname: Squarrey

Given name(s): Robert

Date of source:

Source: Colonial Office. Newfoundland. Original Correspondence. 1696-1922

Location of source: CNS 303 vols. 211 reels

Notes: Robert Squarrey of St. John's was anti Palliser, governor of Newfoundland 1764-1768, and who was heavily responsible for the passing of the Act for the Encouragement of the Ship Fishery (more commonly known as Palliser's Act) in 1775. Palliser defended fishermen against powerful merchants (see entry above).

6) Original entry:

squarry

1819 1 sep efp news RM ROBT of shaldon who is supposed to understand boat sailing
as well as anyone on this coast won the regatta at shaldon in his DOVE of shaldon st dawlsigh

Surname: Squarry

Given name(s): Robert

Date of source: 1 September 1819

Source: (Trewman's) Exeter Flying Post (newspaper, Exeter, England)

Location of source:

Notes: Mr. Robert Squarry of Shaldon, who is supposed to understand boat sailing as well as anyone on this coast, won the regatta at Shaldon in his boat the Dove (perhaps built at Shaldon or Dawlish).

[Please note that I checked this source but there was no publication on 1 September 1819. I checked papers before and after this date, but I had no success in locating the reference. Maybe the year is incorrect.]