

HON. F. C. ALDERDICE, M.L.C.

IN giving a short brief outline or sketch of the Hon. Fredk. C. Alderdice, M.L.C., lately appointed to that honourable position in the Legislative Council of Newfoundland, which he will fill the honoured seat made vacant in years gone by of his uncle, the late Hon. Moses Monroe, M.L.C., merchant, pioneer, and empire builder of revered memory who is given a brief sketch of in the article "The Irish in Newfoundland in the 19th Century." From what the author know personally of both the late Hon. Moses Monroe and his nephew, the Hon. Fredk. C. Alderdice, in the latter the country will find a duplicate in many ways of the good traits which belonged to Hon. Moses Monroe.

HON. F. C. ALDERDICE, M.L.C.

Hon. F. C. Alderdice, as General Manager of the Colonial Cordage Company. (made vacant by the death of his uncle, James H. Monroe, Esq.,) of revered memory by all his employees and all those that came in contact with him, noted for his generosity and in helping those in need. Hon. Fredk. C. Alderdice married a Miss Harriet Carter, daughter of the late W. T. S. Carter, Collector of Customs at Ferryland, a scion of the late Robert Carter and the late Sir Frederick Carter, K.C.M.G., Chief Justice and Administrator of the Government of Newfoundland. May both him and his good wife be spared many years to

ER

Government, 1895-
for twenty-five years;
of the Catholic Cadet
five years; Chairman
O.B.E., 1919. Married
Feehan, 1892; has one
ing, curling.

SON, J.P., M.L.C.

Editor Newfoundland
4-1916; Notary Public.
v. Edward J. Robinson,
Kingwood School, Bath;
near Grammar School,
-1900; established and Press, 1901; appointed appointed, 1910; elected lected for Trinity Dis-
re for Burin District.
in's Board of Health.
ewfoundland, Nov. 1,
H. Taylor, Carbonear.
& A.M. (Past Master,
Liberal-Imperialist;
s, Nfld.

the House of Assembly, under Sir Robert Bond's Government, 1895-1899; Member of the R. C. Educational Board for twenty-five years; one of the first members of the Committee of the Catholic Cadet Corps; Member of Regatta Committee for thirty-five years; Chairman of Recruiting Committee, 1915-1918; appointed O.B.E., 1919. Married Mary Feehan, daughter of the late Capt. John Feehan, 1892; has one daughter. Club, City. Recreations, fishing, shooting, curling.

HON. F. C.

IN giving a short brief outline, M.L.C., lately appointed to the Legislative Council of Newfoundland, made vacant in years gone by, M.L.C., merchant, pioneer, and is given a brief sketch of in the "10th Century." From wha