HARBOUR GRACE SURROGATE COURT RECORDS 1823 - 1824

Nicholas Ash by his wife Patience versus John Alcock, grandson to the late John Ash, senior, deceased, complaining that the defendent would not give up a small plot of meadow on the north boundary, the west side of the lake, John Ash's room. The court surveyed the ground. Widow Ash said that she had always cut the grass of the said spot of room for a considerable number of years and that the Plaintiff might clear as much ground ti the westward if a new erection then built by John Snow (Blathes son) in lieu of the land in dispute and be considered the said Nicholas Ash' property during his excellency's pleasure

CONCEPTION BAY PLANTATION BOOK 1804

Francis Pike owned a stage, 2 flakes, a beach, 5 houses, 4 gardens and a meadow in Carbonear, bequeathed by his fathers will in 1783. It had been in the family for 56 years (1804). Francis brothers were Edward and Samuel.

NORTH CIRCULAR COURT 1828 4th June

Francis sued James Walsh over house and land in Carbonear. (This was either Francis above or the son of) His grandfather was the Pike of Pike and Green, merchants of Poole and Newfoundland in the 1750,s.
