WIMBORNE EXAMS
Dated the 29th November, 1776, the examination of William Churchill, Labourer, now residing at Winborne, age twenty three. He was borned at Wareham, Dorset and lived with them until he was about thirteen, then agreed to go to Newfoundland for three summers and two winters. Since that time, he has been two other voyages for Newfoundland and since he left the sea service, he has worked as a day labourer at different places. About nine weeks ago, he married Mary, his present wife at Winborne. He has no house or lands.
