

FOOTNOTES.

1. St. John's Basilica Parish Register: Marriages 1821-1836, p. 21.
2. Administration documents for Nicholas Crooke's estate 1851. These documents indicate that Crooke was survived by his wife and three sons: Nicholas (b.c. 1825, d.c. 1859), Martin (b.c. 1824) and Henry (b.c. 1822).
3. St. John's Basilica Parish Register: Baptisms 1802-1833, p. 308.
4. Royal Gazette, December 10, 1850.
5. Vol. 3 Probate Book, p. 223.
6. PRO/CO 194/96, f. 31, Testimonial to Michael McKeen Little, July 1836.
7. Centenary Volume Benevolent Irish Society, Cork, Ireland [n.d.], p. 42.
8. Ibid., p. 45.
9. Ibid., p. 144. (Illustration p. 68)
10. Ibid., p. 42.
11. M.F. Howley,  Ecclesiastical History of Newfoundland, Boston, 1888, p. 228.
12. Gertrude E. Gunn, The political history of Newfoundland, 1832-1864, Toronto, 1966.
This book contains a full discussion of the political alignments of the period.
13. House of Commons, Select Committee on Newfoundland 1841, p. 67.
14. Newfoundlander, October 6, 1842 and CO 194/96 op.cit.
15. Public Ledger, April 4, 1834.
16. A search of both the Registry of Deeds and of Grants failed to produce any reference to Crooke.