Dear Mr Renault,
In answer to your letter of 2 October I can give you the following information.:-

NAMI FILE

NOTES ON THE COMPANY OF RENOUF, CLEMENT AND CO.

THE firm of Degruchy, Renouf and Clement was established at La Poile on the South Coast of Newfoundland. It was the successor to the firm of Winter, Nicolle and Company which first established a fishery and trade at Jersey Harbor, Fortune Bay in the late 18th century.

Degruchy, Renouf Clement and co, operated between 1865 and 1885. from 1885 to 1903 the firm was known merely as Renouf, Clement and Company. the firm was wound up in 1903. One of the partners was Thomas Renouf..

Thomas renouf had commenced life as the agent for Philip Nicolle Jr at La Poile- he was out there in the 1840s. Thus the new firm arose because one of the partners had been an agent of the older company. He married at Grand Bank Methodist Church in 1848, Bethena Ke that I know of now surviving documents of the Company. For Photographs of Lapoile or Jersey Harbor, you might try writing to the PROVINCIAL ARCHIVIST, PROVINCIAL ARCHIVES OF NEWFOUNDLAND, COLONIAL BUILDING, MILITARY ROAD, ST JOHNS, NEWFOUNDLAND.

I HOPE that the above is of some value to you.

sincerely yours

In 1868 Philip Degruchy was agent for Nicolle and dequetteville at Lapoile- he was drowned in that year aged 26 .

Besides their main branch at La Poile the firm also had a branch at Little St Lawrence on the Burin peninsula, and at Jersey Harbor.

1887 the company of Degruchy, Renouf and co Dissolved- Degruchy withdrawing from the trade. The company was renamed Clement Renouf and co- partners, thomas Renouf, Philip Clement and Philip Mauger.
