Copy of Thomas Reeves' agreement for 1828/9/30/1.

20 This is to certify that it is hereby agreed between Arthur Hunt and Thomas Reeves to the following effect, namely, Arthur Hunt does hereby agree to give Thomas Reeves the right of fishing Sand Hill Brook on the following terms, that is Thomas Reeves is to go there and take charge of the place with everything that may be there. (Inventory to be taken of the same) taking care of the same and keeping the place etc in thorough repair and fish the brook to the utmost of his ability. In consideration of which the said Thomas Reeves is to be allowed in account one half of the salmon that may be caught provided the whole of the salmon so caught is delivered without any embezzlement whatever to Arthur Hunt or whom he may appoint. It is further agreed between the said parties that the expenses attending fishing the brook, such as nets, twine, and cordage shall be equally divided, also one man's wages and provision which Arthur Hunt is to send there the summer to help fish the said brook. Respecting the winter, Arthur Hunt allows the said Thomas Reeves the use of the traps that may be there, or so many of them as he may want on the following hire, namely one-third of the fur that may be caught provided also the whole of the fur is delivered to Arthur Hunt for any default or non-

Continued for 1829/30/31.

[14 Sept.,
1833.]

It is hereby agreed between C. and E. Hunt and Co. of Sandwich Bay of one part and James Edward of the other part, that C. and E. Hunt and Company shall let on hire, and E. and E. Hunt and Co. of Sandwich Bay do hereby agree to let to James Edwards for five years from the date of this agreement the salmon fishery in Paradise Brook with the houses, nets, and other property mentioned in the inventory at foot on the following terms.

The said James Edwards shall properly fish the brook for salmon to the utmost of his power and keep the house, craft and other property in good condition, the expense of keeping the same in repair and of providing for any new craft, such which may be found necessary shall be borne one third by C. and E. Hunt and Co. and two thirds by James Edwards.

The whole of the voyage to be delivered to C. and E. Hunt & Co. who shall be allowed one-third of the same for rent of the post share of the expenses etc., James Edwards to be allowed in account for the remaining two thirds of the same price as C. and E. Hunt and Co. give their other dealers.

In case either of the parties wish to determine this agreement they shall be at liberty to do so giving six months notice to the other at the end of which the place shall be given up to C. and E. Hunt and Co.

C. and E. Hunt and Co. shall also supply James Edwards with goods for trading with the Mountaineers, the whole produce of which shall be delivered to C. and E. Hunt and Co. who shall allow James Edwards for one half of the same at same price as given to other dealers, the other half of the produce to be allowed C. and E. Hunt and Co. and the expenses of the trading to be divided equally between the parties.

Dumplin Island, 14th September 1833.

C. AND E. HUNT AND COMPANY,
JAMES EDWARDS.

[NOTE.—The following agreement was apparently made at
Dumplin Island in 1841.]

[1841 (?)]

It is hereby agreed between C. and E.
