MANUEL FAMILY IN Newfoundland.

In England connected with the Channel Islands (Jersey) and Dorset. The Newfoundland Manuel's are apparently all from Dorsetshire.

No mention of Simon in my name files - his dates are a little too late for us. The following Newfoundland Manuels (by Christian name and first date) are to be found.

WILLIAM At Catalina (Trinity Bay by 1802 (probably of Wimborne Dorset) At Greenspond Bonavista Bay by 1805. Family had been involved in the Newfoundland fishery since at least 1755.

JAMES Possibly connected with Wimborne Dorset At Expoits in 1854.

JOHN At Catalina 1836.

JOSEPH ~~of Stoborough (Dorset) and Newfoundland~~ "Planter" died Catalina Nfld in 1834 asged 68.. Possibly of Bloxworth Dorset. Joseph at St Lawrence (~~Byrin~~ Byrin Peninsula) Newfoundland in 1792.

GEORGE Died Catalina Nfld in 1837 aged 46.

ROBERT of Stoborough (Dorset) and Newfoundland "Planter" ~~was~~ married in Wareham Dorset in 1766. (probably the same family as William of Catalina (above)).

BENJAMIN Of Dorset, married at Channel, Port Aux Basques in 1885.

THOMAS of Dorset in 1788 apprenticed to Nelan Tory of Wimborne who had a mercantile trade in White Bay and Explits area Newfoundland
