

place to live in Hull Street, he empowered me to let in his name the plantation but one thing eludes in the Garrison has foreclosed or had an other possession of great plantation and put it down the same which I understood on it, who says he let it by his justice, but I am not built another he further says he has another power your Excellency and to keep possession and make use of it as his right your Excellency I am sorry says your Excellency will be pleased to be shown into what Walter Williams can put your Excellency or believe I said Walter Williams into quiet and I receive possession of it to British and as in Duty bound your Excellency's Attorney underd Bay -

This claim of sharing in behalf of Hall, Thomas and dispute before him and Shirley being from a bona fide grant of the place in question in 1746 from Major Hamilton then Commanding Officer in the Garrison to Walter Williams the latter the whole is null and void, and the place remains in the Garrison's possession, the only Order that no building shall be erected thereon for the future

By Command of His Excellency
J. M. Williams
