

Snelgrove, George

S-26B

snelgrove

1822 sdt jns ang geo married mary rennell both st jns

SNELGROVE

1822 apr st jns ang geo of st jns literate married mary rennell literate

SNELGROVE

1826 co 194/82 Geo sailmkr of waterst anti st jns govt.

SNELGROVE

1833 3 arch Geo petty junor

Snelgrove

1833 11 jul nflder Mr geo lost nth side house in 7th fire

SNELGROVE

1836 co 194/107 Geo sailmkr pro little.

SNELGROVE

1878 fortune bay dispute GEO of St Jacques fortune bay
sub collr of customs there for fortune bay

SNELGROVE S026 B - GEORGE

Name: George Snelgrove
Source: St. John's Anglican Parish Records
Date: 1822

George married Mary Rennell, both of St. John's.

Name: George Snellgrove
Source: St. John's Anglican Parish Records
Date: April 1822

George of St. John's, who is literate, married Mary Rennell, who is also literate.

Name: George Snellgrove
Source: Great Britain, Colonial Office, Colonial Secretary, Newfoundland
Date: 1826

George, a sailmaker, of Water Street, is anti-St. John's government.

Name: George Snellgrove
Source: Provincial Archives of Newfoundland (?)
Date: 1833

George is a petty juror.

Name: George Snelgrove
Source: Newfoundlander (NF newspaper)
Date: July 11, 1833

Mr. George lost north side of house in seventh fire.

Name: George Snellgrove
Source: Great Britain, Colonial Office, Colonial Secretary of Newfoundland
Date: 1836

George, a sailmaker, is pro-Little.

Name: George Snellgrove
Source: Fortune Bay Dispute (?)
Date: 1878

George, of St. Jacques, Fortune Bay, is sub-collector of customs there for Fortune Bay.